Application and Reasoning

'I' or 'Me'

Developing

- 1a. My parents and I were going on holiday.
- 2a. Various possible answers; for example: I like the colour purple.
- 3a. A because 'Mr Smith and I' is the subject of the sentence. Sentence B should be 'Mr Smith and I picked some beautiful flowers.'

Expected

- 4a. Last weekend, my friend Peter and I noticed a peculiar insect in the garden.
- 5a. Various possible answers; for example: Karen and I promised we would go swimming yesterday.
- 6a. A because 'Lucy, Charlie and I' is the subject of the sentence whereas in B it is the object. Sentence B should be 'Strange things often happen to Lucy, Charlie and me.'

Greater Depth

- 7a. "When I am older, I want to be famous and I will live a comfortable life," she told Georgia and me.
- 8a. Various possible answers; for example: My friend and I wanted to experience a roller coaster so we went to the theme park.
- 9a. B. In A, 'Ewan and me' is used but it is the subject of the clause so it should be 'Ewan and I'.

Application and Reasoning

'I' or 'Me'

Developing

- 1b. Come and play with Peter and me.
- 2b. Various possible answers; for example: Katie wants me to come to her house.
- 3b. B because 'me' is the object of the sentence. Sentence A should be 'The children hid from me.'

Expected

- 4b. "How would you describe Lucy and me?" pondered Jack.
- 5b. Various possible answers; for example: Mum read the blue book to Dad and me.
- 6b. B because 'Harriet and me' is the object of the sentence where in A it is the subject. Sentence A should be 'Harriet and I couldn't decide what time to arrive at the party.'

Greater Depth

- 7b. Although Jodie and I knew Mum didn't want to put pressure on us, I often felt like she accidentally did.
- 8b. Various possible answers; for example: Henry didn't have as much knowledge as Rachel and me because he was younger.
- 9b. A. In B, 'Jason and I' is used but it is the object of the clause so it should be 'Jason and me'.
