Application and Reasoning
Consolidating Word Classes 1

Developing

1a. No, she is incorrect. She has classified might as an adverb. It is a modal verb.

2a. He is incorrect because quickly is an adverb. Cold is the adjective.

3a. Various answers, for example: I like to use paint to create pictures (noun). I paint with my mum on Saturdays (verb).

Expected

4a. No, she is incorrect. She has classified friendly as an adverb. It is an adjective.

5a. He is incorrect because bunch, as in bunch of flowers, is a collective noun.

6a. Various answers, for example: I like to take a break when I am doing my homework (noun). Break that piece of chocolate into two (verb).

Greater Depth

7a. Yes, she is correct. Early can be both an adjective and an adverb.

8a. He is correct because 'dove-grey' is a compound adjective and needs a hyphen.

9a. Various answers, for example: It has taken a pretty long time to complete this word search (adverb). Sunflower petals are a pretty yellow colour (adjective).

Developing

1b. No, he is incorrect. He has classified mightily as a modal verb. It is an adverb.

2b. She is incorrect because new is an adjective. Now is the adverb.

3b. Various answers, for example: Perfumes have a nice smell (noun). I can smell the cookies baking (verb).

Expected

4b. No, he is incorrect. He has classified greedily as an adjective. It is an adverb.

5b. She is incorrect because sheep is a plural common noun. Flock is the collective noun.

6b. Various answers, for example: I had a dream last night (noun). I dream of opening a café one day (verb).

Greater Depth

7b. No, he is incorrect. Late can be both an adverb and an adjective, but hearty is an adjective and heartily is an adverb.

8b. She is incorrect. Goldfish is a compound noun that doesn't need a hyphen.

9b. Various answers, for example: In winter, I wear a long coat to keep warm (adjective). I will be having my lunch before long (adverb).
